

The Blue Ridge Studio for the Performing Arts

DRESS CODE

POLICY: A student who comes to class properly dressed and ready to dance is better prepared for the discipline and commitment that is essential for success. Therefore, it is our policy that all students (Level I and up) comply with the dress code detailed below. (We are more lenient with the Littles.) Students who repeatedly come to class without the proper attire will not be permitted to participate, and will be required to observe class instead.
